Throughout the vast shadowy world of ghosts and demons there is no figure so terrible, no figure so dreaded and abhorred, yet clight with such fearful fascination, as the vampire, who is himself neither ghost nor demon, but yet who partakes the dark natures and possesses the mysterious and terrible qualities of both.

Second, there was part of him — and I didn't know how potent that part might be — that thirsted for my blood.
And third,
I was unconditionally and irrevocably in love with him.
